KITCHEN REMEDIES

These are some easy solutions to common household problems using ingredients that are all natural, commonly found in the kitchen, and the staff at Home Organizational Services have tried and been very pleased with the results.

Baking Soda Tip 1:

To control odors in kitty litter boxes, put 1 inch of baking soda on bottom of box, then cover with 3 inches of cat litter.

WISDOM'S CORNER

Perception is the means for describing something as good or bad. This paints your reality in the colors which you judge it to be. This allows your perceptions to become your reality.

Baking Soda Tip 2:

To control odors in bird cages, use 1/2 inch baking soda on bottom of removable tray covered with newspaper, then pour 1/2 inch grit on top of baking soda. Then put a light coating of bird seed on the bottom of the cage so that the birds eat the grit. The grit is a great digestive aid for your birds.

White Vinegar Tip 1:

To get rid of soap scum on ceramic tile in the bathroom, make a solution of 1 part vinegar with 4 parts water, mix in spray bottle, and spray over tiles. We tell customers that after they take their shower, spray the tiles down with the vinegar solution, then dry off and use the damp bath towel to wipe down the tiles. We have found that using white towels works best. Some customers have objected to the odor.

White Vinegar Tip 2:

We have tried and liked using 1/2 cup vinegar mixed with 1 tablespoon salt for polishing metals such as copper or brass. This is great for lightly soiled metal pieces.

TIME MANAGEMENT STRATEGY

Try putting all like things together and in the same place.

For instance, put all of your hand gardening tools, and small gardening necessities like gloves, in a tote that zippers closed and is transported easily from one work site to the next. This keeps you from having to spend time searching for what you need when you need it. Home Organizational Services has the correct totes for just such a project. Give us a call, we can help!
